

Mains Monitor

DATA SHEET

- The KMM Mains Monitor is designed to monitor the output from a strain gauge bridge load cell.
- Display resolution of up 4.5 digits
- Maximum display of 19999
- Customised to output engineering units, including the sign of the load and the decimal point where appropriate.
- 2 Part Control panel. Right hand side displays the digits, sign and decimal point.
- The left hand side comprises of an aluminium panel with four push buttons located at the four corners
  - On/ Off Illuminating button
  - Tare Button
  - Peak Button
  - Reset Button
- The last three buttons all have alternative uses during factory set-up and during load cell calibration.
- A new instrument is first set up at the factory to the required full scale and decimal point position.
- Automatic Range and Hold on Break feature is available.
- Facility to line arise irregular outputs from Loadcells & Transducers.

AJT EQUIPMENT LIMITED